Chapter 1 by Nolan Hughes

this is a story about a kid who is 13 and going through a dark and rough time at school and even at home so he gets into an accident and goes into a coma and the best happens to him read to find out!! Okay so we start off the story with a child named Jonesy ya i know his name doesn't sound interesting but you'll get used to it so let's get started sun is rising outside Jonesy's window and his worst nightmare is to hear his god damn alarm clock ring why you may ask oh ya cause he has to go to school at 3:00 in the morning so he grabs a hammer and smashes it but his mom brakes through his bedroom door and grabs him by the neck and starts choking him and she says to him did you brake that god damn alarm clock so he responds and says yes im sorry so his mother throws him across his bedroom and he hits his concrete wall and brakes his back. You broke my back mom Jonesy said cryingly to his mom So she replies and says your still going to school baby bitch and so she leaves Jonesy's room and he says whispering to himself i wish i was dead :(
